1st Annual USBF American Memorial Bodybuilding & Ms USBF Figure Championships

PROMOTERS: PAUL EADE

DATE: MAY 26, 2007

PLACE: OLEANS, NY

Kudos to USBF promoter Paul Eade on the recent success of the first annual USBF American Memorial Bodybuilding and Figure Championships, the site was the Jamestown Community College at the beautiful Cutco Theater, Olean, NY.

What it lacked in the number of competitors, 25, more than made up for in quality of physique in front of a jubilant and capacity standing room only filled auditorium.

Lovely Nicole Bieber presented a high caliber physique and lots of stage presence to win the women bodybuilding novice. Denise Hochul displayed a finely tune stature to garner the women masters 45+ over sharp Lisa Hawley. Lisa quickly returned to win the women open middleweight class.

Women open heavyweight Denise Hochul won a squeaker over Donna Crosby whereas Nick Emley pick up the first in the Men Teen/JR class.

Men master 35-39, Rodney Gaines, whom I met eating breakfast earlier in the AM hours seemed to have consumed the right amount of carbohydrates in winning a close one over Steve "FBI", full-blooded Italian, Potenziano.

John Turnbull took the masters men 40-44 over a determined Edward Betza with Mark Condon claiming the masters' men 45-49 hardware.

Novice lightweight trophy was claimed by Jim Caloren; Edward Betza carried home the novice heavyweight class over Bill Irons. Caloren came back to battle for the novice/Jr/teen overall and was declared the victor over a highly-spirited, hard-fought battles over Edward Betza and Nick Emley.

In the open classes, lightweight Steve Potenziano, middleweight Rodney Gaines, Lt heavy Ed Betza, and heavyweight big John Turnbull were declared the top of their respective divisions which led to a super-charged open overall pose down. As the smoke cleared, Rodney Gaines' muscularity and superb condition proved fruitful in assuring him the 1st Annual USBF American Memorial Bodybuilding Championship.

Denise Hochul was announced as the inaugural winner of the American Memorial Figure Championships.

Judging panel: Jeff Rau, Beverly Fuoco, Chuck Baer, Sherman Wright, and Brian Washington,

Special thanks: NY State Trooper Dan Brown, singing of "America the Beautiful"

MC: Sherman Wright, Special acknowledgment: Southern Tier Military Group
